Summary regulations for candidates 2014

This document contains a summary of the information you need in order to take a Cambridge English Language Assessment exam. You must read this very carefully. If you do not understand something, please ask your centre. The full regulations, which set out your rights and obligations as a candidate, are in the Regulations booklet which is available from your centre or you can download it from www.cambridgeenglish.org.

- Cambridge English Language Assessment: A part of Europe's largest assessment agency, Cambridge Assessment (the trading name for UCLES, a non-teaching department of the University of Cambridge).
- Centre: an authorised Cambridge English Language Assessment exam centre. Centres are independently run institutions and Cambridge English Language Assessment is not responsible for any actions or omissions by centres.
- Candidate: someone who has registered to take a Cambridge English exam.

1. Who can take the exams?

- Cambridge English exams may be taken by people of any age, gender, race, nationality or religion. Although they are designed for native speakers of languages other than English, no language related restrictions apply.

2. Registering for the exam

- You must register for the exam through a centre. Your contract is with the centre and you pay your exam fees to them.
- For some exams, there may be more than one session in the same month. There is no restriction on how many times a month you can take an exam with the exception of Skills for Life exams. (There is a restriction that applies to the Certificated BULATS test which has a separate Summary of Regulations for candidates).
- You must take all components of an exam on the dates specified.
- You are not allowed to take some components in one session and the remainder at another time.
- You cannot transfer an entry from one exam session to a future one, or to an exam at a different level.

3. Special requirements

- Cambridge English Language Assessment will always try to make arrangements for candidates with special requirements (e.g. extra time or adapted papers).
- You must tell your centre as soon as possible if you have any special requirements because they need to send the application to Cambridge English Language Assessment 8-12 weeks before the exam (depending on what is required and which exam you are taking). Some exams may need up to 6 months' notice.

4. Taking the exam

- The centre will give you information about where and when your exam will be held. You must make sure that you arrive at the right time and that you bring the pencils, pens, etc. that you need for the exam.
- Candidates must bring a photo ID on the day of the test. The ID must be an original national ID, valid, current and not expired (i.e. passport or national ID card). If you do not have a national ID because you are too young, you must notify your centre of this when you register for an exam. The centre will then provide you with a Candidate Identification form that you must fill in before the exam day and bring with you to the exam. If you do not bring your ID or the Candidate Identification form to the exam, you will not be allowed to take the exam.
- If you are aged 18 or over and from a country where there are no compulsory national IDs, please ask your centre what to do.
- The centre will give you a copy of the Notice to Candidates which tells you how you must behave in the exam. You must read it carefully. If you do not follow the instructions, you may be stopped from taking the exam, or you may not receive a result.
- The use of offensive, rude or racist language in your examination answers will not be accepted. Your examination may not be marked or a result given if the examiner finds language like this. Cambridge English Language Assessment's decision on this is final.
- You will be asked to fill out a Candidate Information Sheet. Cambridge English Language Assessment uses this information as part of its research and development programme to improve the quality of the exams. The information you give is treated anonymously and is strictly confidential.
- You may be asked to complete a short 'anchor test'. Cambridge English Language Assessment uses this information as part of its quality control programme. The 'anchor test' will not affect your exam result.
- We may also record your Speaking test as part of Cambridge English Language Assessment's quality control procedures.
- If you are taking the following exams: Cambridge English: Preliminary, Cambridge English: First, Cambridge English: Advanced, Cambridge English: Proficiency, Cambridge English: Business Certificates, Cambridge English: Legal, Cambridge English: Financial, a photo will be taken of you on the test day as an extra way of checking your identity. This list is subject to change. This photo will only be visible on the Results Verification website and you choose who can view it by sharing your candidate ID number and secret number. For more information, go to www.cambridgeenglish.org.
- If you do not feel well on the day of the exam or think that your work may be affected for any other reason, tell the supervisor immediately. If appropriate, the centre will report this to Cambridge English Language Assessment for consideration when deciding your result.

- If you miss the exam because of illness, you may be allowed a full or part refund. You will need to give medical evidence to your centre for this to be considered.

5. After the exam

- Cambridge English Language Assessment cannot be held responsible for loss of exam scripts or materials while in transit from the centre and/or its venues to Cambridge.
- For some exams your results will be available from the Results Online website between the dates specified. Your centre will give you access to this site. For other exams a copy of your results will be posted to your centre who will forward the information on to you. Cambridge English Language Assessment may amend result information under exceptional circumstances.
- Cambridge English Language Assessment reserves the right not to issue results for those candidates where a test day photo is required and was not taken or who breach our rules and regulations.
- If you think that your result is not correct, please contact your centre without delay and they will give you details of the enquiries and appeals process and the related fees. Information is also available on www.cambridgeenglish.org.
- Cambridge English Language Assessment will not give feedback on your performance for individual questions. All the available information is given in your Statement of Results.

6. Certificates

- If you have passed the exam, your centre will give you your certificate approximately 4 weeks after the results are released for paper-based exams. For computer-based exams this is approximately 2 weeks after the release of results. Unclaimed certificates will be destroyed by your centre after 2 years.
- Your Cambridge English Language Assessment certificate is an important document containing a number of security features, do not lose it. If you do lose your certificate and need to prove your result; you can apply for a certifying statement, which provides an official confirmation of your result. An additional fee is payable for this service. The certifying statement application form is available from www.cambridgeenglish.org.

7. Copyright

- Copyright on all question papers and exam material belongs to Cambridge English Language Assessment. You must not take question papers, notes or any other exam material out of the exam room.
- Cambridge English Language Assessment does not allow candidates, schools or centres to view candidates' answers or any other work done as part of an exam.

Where you authorise it, third parties may view information for verification purposes. In addition, certain third parties may view information and details can be found at www.cambridgeenglish.org/verifiers.
